Port Orange, FLA. – (May 2, 2024) – On April 6th of 2024, Rue & Ziffra, World Famous Iron Horse Saloon, along with special guest Rusty Wallace, and other local sponsors: Hot Action sportswear , John Walker taxidermy, Southern Country Custom, Iron Horse Saloon, Barton & Barton Feed and Supply, Veterans Support Fund, Red White and Blue Heating and Air Conditioning, Boot Hill Saloon, OB's Restaurant & Lounge, Jeep Beach, Twisted Tea, AOK Guns, United Rentals, Hard Rock Hotel and American Poly Furniture, among many volunteers, partnered together for Saddle Up for St. Jude Poker Run. The event fundraisers featured silent auctions, t-shirt sales and 50/50 raffles. The lead organizer of the event, Sherry Fletcher says, "We love working with our community and raising money with them for this special organization that helps children in our community with cancer." The event and efforts raised a total of $78,105 for St. Jude. Dawn Barrick, Principal Advisor and Field Development for St. Jude was present to receive this loving donation. She notes "On behalf of St. Jude Children's Research Hospital, we are so grateful for all that the Iron Horse Saloon and the local community did to raise funds to support the kids of St. Jude through their first annual kick-off of "Saddle Up for St. Jude" event. Thanks to our amazing supporters, families never receive a bill from St. Jude for treatment, travel, housing, or food. Over the past two years the Iron Horse Saloon has raised a total of $120,000 for the kids of St. Jude. The funds raised could help cover the cost of 70 days of chemotherapy for St. Jude Leukemia patients." The check was officially presented on April 29, 2024, and we're looking forward to third annual successful fundraiser for St. Jude next year.
